Daddy Daughter Dinner Dance late registration begins January 3, 2018

THE WOODLANDS, TEXAS (December 8, 2017) – For 18 years, the Daddy Daughter Dinner Dance has been a tradition that brings fathers and daughters together for a night of fun, games and dancing. This is a great opportunity to spend some special time with your dad or daughter and create lasting memories for years to come. Now in its 19th year, The Woodlands Township Parks and Recreation Department is asking all dads and daughters to attend a dreamy, sweet evening of gumdrops, lollipops and candy galore at the Candy Wonderland-themed 19th Annual Daddy Daughter Dinner Dance.

This event is open to all ages and will have games and activities in the Candy Wonderland theme. Every daughter will receive a special gift and there will also be prizes handed out. This event offers assigned seating, so call ahead to get your tickets and put in your seating requests.

This event will be held at The Woodlands Waterway Marriott on February 10, 2018, from 6 to 9:30 p.m. This event does fill up quickly, so be sure to register as soon as you can.

Registration prices for this event will be $125/pair, $50/additional sibling — up until January 2, 2018. After this date the price will increase to $150/pair, $55/additional sibling.

The best thing about memories ... is making them. Come out to the 19th Annual Daddy Daughter Dinner Dance and make some memories with your dad or daughter.
