The Haunting at Bear Branch scares up Halloween fun with “Panic Room”

THE WOODLANDS, TEXAS (September 22, 2022) – The Haunting at Bear Branch returns this October to incite fun and frights for residents and visitors of The Woodlands. Hosted by The Woodlands Township Parks and Recreation Department, The Haunting at Bear Branch will feature a “Panic Room” theme, sure to strike fear in those who brave its path.

Patrons of The Haunting at Bear Branch can expect many thrills along the half-mile trail with mazes, tunnels and tight quarters designed to scare. This year’s trail will feature the largest room constructed in the event’s history, inviting patrons to escape the trail and the room before time expires.

The Haunting at Bear Branch takes place at 5200 Research Forest Drive, The Woodlands, TX, 77381, from 8 to 10 p.m., with the last ticket sold at 9:30 p.m.

2022 Dates

Fridays – October 7, 14, 21, 28

Saturdays – October 8, 15, 22, 29

Tickets

Fast Pass – Want to skip the line? Fast Pass tickets are on sale now. Fast Passes are $20 per person and pre-registration is required. Please note that Fast Passes tend to sell out quickly. To purchase a Fast Pass, please visit www.thewoodlandstowship-tx.gov/signupforfun or call 281-210-3950.

The general admission ticket line opens at 7:45 p.m. on event nights; tickets are $9 at the gate.

Volunteer

The Woodlands Township Parks and Recreation Department needs your help for The Haunting at Bear Branch. Volunteer positions are open now. Duties range from participating as an actor, ticket taker, food prepper or survey taker to documenting the event as a photographer. Dinner will be provided nightly before each volunteer shift.

The Haunting at Bear Branch Park is sponsored by Fred Haas Toyota World and Fred Haas Toyota Country. This event would not be possible without the support of local organizations and volunteers.
