Volunteer this spring with The Woodlands Township

THE WOODLANDS, TEXAS (January 16, 2013) – The Woodlands Township has many volunteer opportunities this spring. Township staff relies on volunteers to help run their programs and events. Visit www.thewoodlandstowship-tx.gov/volunteer for information regarding events and programs that need volunteers. Organizations, clubs, individuals and families are all welcome. Upcoming events include:

Earth Day GreenUp, Saturday, March 23, 2013, 8:30 to 11:30 a.m.: This marks the third annual community-wide stewardship project for The Woodlands Township. Connect with neighbors and the outdoors by joining or leading a cleanup crew bagging trash from streets, pathways and streams. You gather your friends and we provide the bags!

Muddy Trails Bash, Saturday, April 6, 2013, 3 to 8 p.m.: Volunteer for the sixth annual Muddy Trails Bash where the courses wind through the beautiful George Mitchell Nature Preserve, located on 1,800 acres adjacent to Rob Fleming Park in the Village of Creekside Park. Volunteers are needed for the run course, KidZone and post-race celebration.

CB&I TRI – The Woodlands, Saturday, May 4, 2013, 7 to 11:30 a.m.: Be a part of one of the premier multi-sport events in the region. The CB&I TRI, which has sold out for the past nine years, offers high-caliber competition, first-rate race management and a scenic course (500-meter swim, 15-mile bike, 5K run). In 2012, participants ranged from beginners to nationally ranked triathletes.
