National talent booked for Earth Day GreenUp concert

THE WOODLANDS, TEXAS (March 14, 2013) – The Woodlands Township has signed national headlining band Vocal Trash to play for the Earth Day GreenUp celebration party at Northshore Park on Saturday, March 23, 2013, from 11 a.m. to 1:30 p.m.

Combining music, choreography and comedy with recycled instruments and an earth-friendly message, Vocal Trash will perform a mix of rock, oldies, swing and pop. The eco-entertainers will deliver a variety show of tight a cappella harmonies, industrial “Stomp” style drumming and award-winning break dancing.

The entire community is invited to the free concert and other festivities to celebrate volunteers participating in the community-wide stewardship that targets litter. Volunteers will be treated to pizza and drinks; food tickets will be on sale to the general public.

Nature booths, free face painting, and popular kid’s activities from the Ecology Carnival will make the day a family event. Explore hoop dancing with Yvonne Bohanon from the Houston Spin Stars and discover the new fitness craze.

Walk-up registration for Earth Day GreenUp is welcome at nine locations on Saturday, March 23, 2013, from 8 to 10 a.m. A Great American Cleanup event, The Woodlands Earth Day GreenUp is coordinated by The Woodlands Township and sponsored by The Woodlands G.R.E.E.N , The Woodlands Development Company, Waste Management, Americas Styrenics, H-E-B, Woodlands Joint Powers Agency, Hilton Garden Inn, BIO, Nature’s Way Resources.
